

FOR THE OWNER OF BIG NOSE FULL BODY

BIG NOSE. FULL BODY. YOUR OWN SHOP, ONLINE.

A working demo of your site and your cellar, rebuilt on codanomix.
Before we propose anything, we'd like to hear where the current site lets you down.

THE SHORT VERSION

WE BUILT IT FIRST. NOW WE'D LIKE TO TALK.

We didn't want to pitch you slides about a website. So we built the website, loaded your cellar into it, and put a shop on it that takes orders. That's what you'll see in the next few minutes.

- ★ What we've done: a redesigned site plus a full ordering shop, running on our own platform at bignosefullbody.codanomix.com.
- ★ What we haven't done: priced it. We'd rather understand what you need first and come back with a written proposal.
- ★ What we want from this meeting: your honest list of what's wrong with the current site. If you're happy to talk about what it costs you, that helps us make a fair comparison, but it's entirely your call.
- ★ Our aim: take over the website, make it work harder for the shop, and leave you paying less than you do today.

YOUR SITE TODAY

The current site on Squarespace. Good bones: the photo, the stamp, the hours. The shop underneath is a long tagged list.

WHAT WE NOTICED

- ★ The catalogue is the asset. Six hundred bottles, every one tagged by grape, region, organic, biodynamic, kosher, unoaked. That tagging is real work and it should carry over intact.
- ★ The shop is hard to browse. "Shop" leads to a page explaining how to search. Reserve-list bottles and everyday bottles sit in the same long lists with no photos.
- ★ The offers are buried. Free Park Slope delivery, daily tastings at 15% off, HALF5 and CASE15 discounts. These are the reasons to buy from you and not from an app.
- ★ You're paying a platform to be a platform. A subscription, a card rate, and possibly a cut of every online sale. Whatever the figure, some of it is buying tiers you don't use.

WHAT WE BUILT · THE SITE

SAME SHOP. LOUDER.

Your stamp, your photos, your berry red.
Hours, delivery, tastings and the case discounts on every page, not hidden in a menu.

- ★ Home, The Cellar, Tastings & Delivery, Visit, plus cart, checkout and confirmation.
- ★ Ticker across the top: tastings, free delivery, 600+ bottles, open every day.
- ★ Built from your live site: we imported the pages, images and catalogue rather than retyping them.
- ★ Fast, plain pages that load instantly on a phone on 7th Avenue.

The new homepage. The design is a starting point for a conversation, not a finished decision.

WHAT WE BUILT · THE CELLAR

Your reserve list as it is today. Everyday bottles in the demo are placeholders. Label cards stand in until we have bottle photos.

SHOP THE SHELF

- ★ Filter the way you tag. Sparkling, White, Rosé, Orange & Funky, Red, Sake & Cider, Large Format, Dessert & Fortified, Gift Cards. Then Organic, Biodynamic, Natural, Vegan, Unoaked, Minimal Sulfur, No Added Sulfur, Kosher.
- ★ Scores and notes on the card. "97 · Wine Spectator" next to the price, not three clicks away.
- ★ Stock that tells the truth. "Only 2 left" and "Sold out" come from your counts, so nobody orders a bottle you don't have.
- ★ Your discounts, built in. HALF5 at six bottles, CASE15 at twelve, NYC sales tax, and delivery zones with their minimums.
- ★ Gift cards at $50, $100 and $150.

WHAT RUNS IT

A WEBSITE SYSTEM WE BUILD, HOST AND LOOK AFTER OURSELVES.

codanomix is our own platform for small businesses that sell real things: shops, restaurants, galleries, places to stay. One login runs the whole site, the shop, the stock and the orders.

WHERE IT COMES FROM

The 2026 rebuild of a content platform our studio has run for client sites for more than a decade. Same team, same code we answer for, rewritten for how the web works now.

WHAT MAKES IT DIFFERENT

It isn't a template marketplace. Each site is a separate, private install with its own database and its own files, on servers we run. Nothing is shared with another customer, and no third party gets your sales data.

WHO YOU DEAL WITH

Support is by online ticket, answered from London by the team that built the platform. It's the same people for the site, the shop and the hosting, so nothing gets passed to a third party.

YOUR CATALOGUE, ALREADY LOADED

CATALOGUE

- ★ Every bottle filed into a collection: Sparkling, White, Red, Rosé, Large Format, Dessert & Fortified, Orange & Funky, Sake & Cider, Gift Cards.
- ★ A star marks the reserve list. Edit a price, a note or a photo in one place and the shop page updates when you publish.
- ★ Search by name, region or grape. Filter by collection or status.
- ★ Adding a new arrival is one form. No designer, no code, no waiting.

The screenshot shows the admin interface for 'Big Nose Full Body' at the URL `bignosefullbody.codanomix.com/admin/shop/catalogue`. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with options: Content, Assets, Shop (highlighted), Catalogue, Inventory, Orders, Customers, Reports, Developer, and People. The main area is titled 'Catalogue' and includes a search bar, filters for 'All collections' and 'Any status', and a 'Show 10' dropdown. Below this is a table of wine works.

WHAT'S ON THE SHELF

The screenshot shows a web application for managing inventory. The browser address bar displays `bignosefullbody.codanomix.com/admin/shop/inventory`. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with items: Big Nose Full Body, Content, Assets, Shop (selected), Catalogue, Inventory, Orders, Customers, Reports, Developer, and People. The main content area is titled 'Inventory' and includes a search bar, a filter dropdown set to 'Everything', and a 'Show 10' dropdown. Below this is a table with columns: WORK, OPTION, SKU, PRICE, STOCK, and SET STOCK. The table lists various wine and gift card items with their respective stock counts.

Inventory. Counts here are seeded examples so you can see how it reads.

INVENTORY

- ★ One line per bottle and size: 750ml, magnum, half bottle. Each with its own SKU, price and count.
- ★ Type the new count when a delivery arrives. Leave it blank for gift cards and anything that never runs out.
- ★ Filter to "low" or "out" for a reorder list.
- ★ The shop stops selling a bottle the moment the count hits zero, and holds bottles for 30 minutes while someone checks out.
- ★ To discuss: if you run a till or POS system with stock in it, we'd scope a link so you count once, not twice.

One order. Bottles, address, the buyer's note ("Call on arrival"), then Mark shipped, which emails them.

Paid Card payment settles through Stripe, the order appears, the stock count drops, you and the buyer both get an email.

Shipped Mark it when it leaves: shop van, bike courier or store pickup. The buyer gets a second email.

Refunded Refund in Stripe as you do today, note it here, and the reports stay honest.

WHO BUYS FROM YOU

CUSTOMERS

- ★ One row per person, built automatically from paid orders. Orders, lifetime spend, last order date, where they are.
- ★ Your regulars rise to the top. Useful when a case of something rare comes in and you know exactly who to text.
- ★ Buyers sign in with a link emailed to them. No passwords for them to forget or for anyone to steal.
- ★ "Anonymise" removes a person on request and keeps the money records intact.
- ★ The list is yours. Export it, keep it, take it with you. We never sell it, share it or mail it.

WHAT SOLD, WHEN, AND WHAT GOT LOOKED AT

Thirty days of seeded example sales. Bars are revenue, dots are page views.

REPORTS

- ★ Revenue, orders, items sold, average order, new customers. Pick 30 days, 90 days, a year or any two dates.
- ★ Looked-at against bought. Every bottle's page views next to its sales, so you can see what people want and what they walk away from.
- ★ Sales by collection: is it the reds or the sparkling paying the rent this month?
- ★ Views are counted on our server, not by Google. No cookies, no tracking scripts, no consent banner, nothing about your customers leaves your site.
- ★ Two buttons export orders and works to CSV for your accountant.

RUNNING THE SITE WITHOUT A DESIGNER

CHANGE IT YOURSELF

- ★ Edit on the site itself. Click the text on the live page, change it, save. Hours, a new tasting, a note about a delivery closure.
- ★ One dashboard. Edits, page views, what changed this week, and the health of your content at a glance.
- ★ Photos with alt text so bottles show up in Google image search.
- ★ Events for tastings. A tastings calendar with repeat rules: every day at five, Saturdays at four.
- ★ Forms and a mailing list. Sign-ups land in your customer list, with confirmation emails sent from your own domain.
- ★ Sign in with your face or fingerprint. Passkeys, the same thing your bank uses, instead of a password on a sticky note.

The dashboard the morning after a busy day.

HOSTING, SECURITY AND THE BORING PARTS DONE PROPERLY

MODERN, PRIVATE, AND BUILT TO BE LEFT ALONE

HOSTING

- ★ Amazon Web Services, with Cloudflare's network in front so pages are served from the edge nearest the customer.
- ★ Published pages are plain, static files. Nothing to slow down, nothing to fall over on a Saturday night.
- ★ Your site is its own private install: own database, own files, own system account. Nothing shared.
- ★ Daily backups. Updates and security patches applied by us, not left for you to click.

SECURITY

- ★ HTTPS everywhere with strict transport security; TLS 1.2 and up at the edge, with post-quantum key exchange already on.
- ★ A strict Content Security Policy with no inline scripts, so injected code cannot run in your admin.
- ★ Passkey sign-in, bcrypt-hashed passwords, login throttling, forgery-proof forms, hardened sessions.
- ★ Card details never touch our servers: payment is handled by Stripe. Order links are single-use and rotate.
- ★ If we ever need to sign in to help you, it's through a signed, one-time, sixty-second door that leaves an audit line on both sides.

SPEC

- ★ codanomix version 1.0.1839, released 3 September 2026. Runs on PHP 8.5 and MariaDB on Ubuntu 24.04 LTS.
- ★ Shop pages carry Product structured data, canonical URLs and a sitemap, so Google lists bottles with prices and availability.
- ★ Stripe for cards, Apple Pay and Google Pay. Other processors available.
- ★ Email sent through Amazon SES from your own domain, with DKIM and DMARC.
- ★ Works on phones, tablets and the shop's laptop. No app to install.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES · FOR ORIENTATION ONLY

HOW A SQUARESPACE SHOP IS USUALLY PAID FOR

Published US list prices, shown so the shape of the cost is clear. Your plan and add-ons may differ, and you don't need to tell us either.

LINE	PUBLISHED REFERENCE
Squarespace plan (Basic / Core / Plus / Advanced)	$16 / $23 / $39 / $99 per month, billed annually
Online store transaction fee	2% on Basic, 0% above
Card processing rate	roughly 2.9% + 30¢ per sale
Paid add-ons (email, extensions, Google Workspace)	varies
Designer or agency time per year	varies
Your own hours keeping it updated	varies
All-in per month	Subscription + fees + add-ons + time

Squarespace figures are its published list prices at the time of writing and are given for orientation only. Processing rates depend on the card and the plan. Nothing on this page is a quote.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

We listen first. This meeting is about what the site needs to do for the shop, not about numbers.

Then a written proposal. After we've talked, we'll put a proposal together that covers the build, the hosting and support, and the move from Squarespace.

Your figures are yours. If you're comfortable sharing what the current site costs, we'll make the proposal a straight comparison. If not, we'll still make it a fair one.

You own everything either way. The domain, the design, the catalogue, the customer list. If you ever leave, it comes with you.

HOW THE MOVE WOULD WORK

NO DOWNTIME, NO LOST LINKS, NOTHING RETYPED

1LISTEN

This meeting. What's wrong, what must stay, what would make a difference. We take notes, so you can take orders.

2PROPOSE

A written proposal for the build, the hosting and the move, sent to you to consider in your own time.

3BUILD OUT

Import the full catalogue and tags from the live site, add bottle photos, finish the design with you.

4RUN IN PARALLEL

The new site lives at its own address while you try it. Place test orders. Change your mind about things.

5SWITCH

Point bignosefullbody.com at us. Every old product link redirects, so Google and your regulars land in the right place.

6HAND OVER

An hour's walkthrough in the shop, then we're a phone call away. Cancel Squarespace.

Keep Your domain, your email, your Instagram links, your gift cards, your tagging.

Improve Browsing, photos, offers up front, stock that's true, orders and customers in one place.

Drop The platform's cut, the plan tiers, and the "how to search our shop" page.

WHAT WE NEED TO HEAR FROM YOU

TELL US WHAT'S WRONG WITH IT.

"We'll only take this on if we can make it better. So the most useful thing you can do today is complain."

GEORGE CHAMBERS · CODANOMIX

- ★ Only if you're comfortable: share with us what the current site costs you a month, all in. It helps us compare fairly.
- ★ What share of sales happens online, and what does a typical online order look like?
- ★ What annoys you most about it? What do customers complain about?
- ★ Who updates it now, and how long does a new arrival take to list?
- ★ Do you run a till or stock system in the shop? Should the website read from it?
- ★ How do deliveries actually go out: your van, a courier, a driver on a bike?
- ★ What must not change? Search terms, gift cards, sign-in, anything your regulars rely on.
- ★ When does your Squarespace plan renew?
